BULBS

THE REGAL LILY
(Lilium Regale)

The above cut of the Regal Lily was made from a photograph of a plant grown from one bulb which Mr. Joseph H. Perry, 276 Highland Street, Worcester, Mass., planted five years ago. Mr. Perry says: "On July 17, I measured these lilies, and found them to be six feet, six inches in height. On the five stalks there were 42 flowers open on one day which was just a week after they begun to open; and it was just three weeks after the first flower opened when the last one fell."

This wonderful lily from China, perfectly hardy, magnificent flowers, delightfully fragrant. In form the flowers are like the Easter lilies. Center of flower flushed yellow, shading white at outer edge; outside streaked with brown, shaded through almost transparent petals with pearly tint.
